

Open Seeds by OLS

Community Management Café I

Community Management Café in Open Seeds

Learning objectives

At the end of the session, we will be able to

- Considering different kinds of interactions for your community
- Use the Mountain of Engagement method to support participants through various levels of engagements
- Develop persona and pathways for your community for taking people's experiences and expectations in planning your projects